

Technical drawing of a building facade. The drawing shows a window with a double frame and a door with a double frame. The window is located above the door. The door is shown in a partially open position, with a dashed line indicating its swing. The drawing includes various annotations, such as dimension lines, center lines, and section lines. The drawing is oriented horizontally, with the window and door facing right.

This architectural drawing depicts a symmetrical facade. The upper portion features a large window assembly with five vertical panes, each containing a grid pattern. This window is flanked by vertical structural elements. Below the window is a horizontal band, and at the base is a triangular pediment supported by two vertical columns. The drawing includes various annotations: red lines and arrows on the left and right sides, and green lines and arrows at the top, likely indicating dimensions or levels. The entire drawing is enclosed in a rectangular frame.
